DESCRIPTION

Pistol-shaped needle rust-remover - 3,000 bpm - 19 needles

RAPID

Rust remover with 28 three-mm needles making it possible to strip large areas in a short time.

ERGONOMIC

Its specific design, respecting the proportions of the tool's body, ensures good balancing allowing it to be used for intensive tasks.

It removes rust efficiently from severely affected surfaces, strips hard coatings and can also be used in many areas of the construction sector to remove cement deposits or alter the surface of materials.

Only requires minor maintenance.

No tools required to change the needles.
